NORFOLK, VA., June 18 .- The Crew of the Mary Jane got back at the Richmond Colts this afternoon in one of the most peculiar contests probably ever seen on the local grounds. The score was 10 to . 4.

The game throughout was character The game throughout was characterized by hits that came almost as often as the frequent showers and the questionable decisions by Umpire Hoffner, and they had to go some to beat those two. Each team registered thirteen hits, one of which was a two-bagger by Titman, and two others "three times" by Edwards and Jackson, of Norfolk. Edwards's drive evacuated the first and second hassocks, which were occupied.

by Titman, and two others "three times" by Edwards and Jackson, of Norfolk. Edwards's drive evacuated the first and second hassocks, which were occupied.

But for a very palpable piece of bad judgment by Umpire Hoffner in the seventh inning, when he called 'Heale's box.

But for a very palpable piece of bad judgment by Umpire Hoffner in the seventh inning, when he called. 'Haas safe on a bunt which Saive fielded perfectly, and which reached Shaffer several seconds before the runner, Richmond would have had a chance to win their half of the same session, and their half of the same session, and through a temporary let-down by Jordian and timely swats to free country by Titman, Reeve and Shaffer, the fore was brought up to 5 to 4 in favor of Norfolk. Hoffner's calling Henn hit for three bases, but was all up. Four singles and Edwards's liree-bagger, together with passes, were responsible for five runs. Carter started the game for Richmond, and looked to be in form: but the trent which Jordan usually drills into the pitchers' box to aid him in his delivery worried the now man, and he proved an easy proposition for the winners. Salve went in after Houghton had led off in the third with the fifth hit made off the Richmond pitcher, and he was sadly out of form all the rest of the way. The hitting of Shaffer, Titman and Catcher Edwards, for Norfolk, and two assists from the outfield by Walsen were the features of the slugger. To the sall was all up. The game was called on account of darkness in the first half of the highth, after Richmond had scored a fifth run; but the final reckoning, of sourse, reverts back to the seventh, which is the last complete limit played. Carter and Walsh will work to-morrow against Bertrand and Edwards.

Umpire Stanton Resigns

Immediately after the game in Nor-olk Monday Umpire Stanton sent in its resignation to Secretary-Treasurer 2. N. Gregory, stating as his reason or the action that he would do no more work in a league in which sev-oral hundred on more fanatical fans of will be made to retain Stanton becouse of his apparent ability.

Paul Selbrie joined the team in Norfolk this morning at 11 o'clock, but was not played to-day because he had not rested sufficiently after his tiresome trip from Gettysburg, Pa., where he has been attending school. He states that he is in excellent shape, and ready, to play a better game than ever.

It is not likely that he will get into the game until the team returns to Richmond Thursday.

President Bradley and his wife witnessed to-day's game from the grandstand, where they were guests of the local club.

There were several Richmonders in the party, among them being Dr. Fuller Gaskins, who will be remembered as the man who tossed out the first ball at the opening game with Danylle of Richmond
